Selectmen's Meeting

MAY 20, 1986 - by VIRGINIA ARRAL
WHAT DO YOU WANT FROM US? OFFICIALS ASK ACUSHNET SELECTMEN

When Acushnet Board of Selectmen met last Tuesday with Mattapoisett Selectmen and Board of Health on the issue of Acushnet's dump problem, Mattapoisett's officials said, "Give us a proposal we can look at before we can give you an intelligent response."

Board of Health Chairman Evelyn Ellis said "the press you have received during this time hasn't helped you. Mattapoisett residents are saying 'we don't want Acushnet's trash'. Give us a written proposal on what exactly you want from us and the length of time it will involve." The chairman pointed out Mattapoisett will not accept tires, stumps, or trash from private contractors. There is a question on who will pay for maintenance of the fill and bulldozing our landfill. "We can charge you a fee", said Mrs. Ellis, "but nothing will bring back our landfill".

Acushnet Selectmen John Sylvia, Leo M. Rousseau and Lawrence P. Mulvey outlined their admitted predicament as being a crisis situation. "We are hoping our neighboring towns of Fairhaven and you can help us out. We were told in 1985 that our landfill would last five years, then we could be ready to use the SEMASS waste-to-energy plant. We didn't foresee this crisis so quickly." Mulvey said "our private contractor informed us the dump has a six-month life, then it will have to be capped. The additional land we have available is too close to our aquifer for use as a dump. We have to find some place to put the approximately 290 tons per day of trash until SEMASS is ready.

Mattapoisett officials suggested Acushnet Selectmen be more firm with the Health Board, who are essentially responsible for the dump situation. Selectman Frank Suzan recommended closing the dump one month before the six months - the trash will have to go somewhere. Selectman James F. Huntoon urged preparing a factual sheet for a hearing to cease operating there (the dump) immediately. Daniel C. Lee and Mrs. Ellis of the Board of Health agreed even if Acushnet's Health Board gets a two to one vote, the dump can be termed a health hazard. Mrs. Ellis noted the Board of Health has power to issure orders without a town meeting, and they should use it. Suzan also remarked the residents of Mattapoisett will want to know if Acushnet Selectmen have exhausted all answers before "we can act".

In other business, Selectmen:

MET WITH Thomas Ferreira and Steven Mach, Wharf Commissioner, and, in a reversal of a previous decision, agreed to let Ferreira keep his wharf space.

Last week Selectmen and Mach made the decision to ask Ferreira to relinquish his 50 foot spot where he kept a 38 foot Pacemaker with a 10 foot pulpit. Ferreira explained the former wharf commissioner Lloyd Haskell felt a larger boat would fare better than a smaller boat in the spot. Although Ferreira was number seven on the list, all the others preceding him owned smaller boats. He said he now owns a 31 foot Rampage with a six foot pulpit in a 40 foot space.

Mach feels it would be an injustice to take Ferreira's space away from him now. Selectmen agreed to Mach's recommendation to accommodate the change in spacing the wharf commissioner is attempting to put into effect. Mach informed Selectmen he is working on a Master Plan for harbor rules and regulations. Also, he plans to make a list of the number of spaces at the wharves, maximum boat lengths (including pulpits) and the maximum distance between boats. "This will make for maximum utilization," said Mach. Selectmen agreed the job of wharf commissioner is a tough, thankless job.

HEARD AN UPDATE REPORT from the Police Evaluation and Needs Committee with Peter B. Hodges, chairman, saying they intend to use the $5,000 voted at the annual town meeting to pursue all alternatives for a police station. "We realize", said Hodges, who is also a member of the town's Finance Committee, "that money is a major problem, so we are seeking alternatives to the 'pie in the sky' new building."

Committee member Robert Coquillette said he felt the best solution may be to use the property at the end of Church Street considering the equity the town has in the land. Coquillette, who is also chairman of the Council on Aging, said he was told by some seniors they would favor a police station and would vote for a 2½ override if it meant getting a place where they wouldn't have to climb stairs. Selectman Huntoon said in a few years "we may have to request an override, but if we do our homework", he felt Mattapoisett voters would approve.

MET BRIEFLY with Thomas Grondski, ORR teacher and a concerned parent of a child due to enter Center School in September, regarding the condition of the playground at the school.

Grondski explained he would like to spearhead a campaign to build a "creative playground" similar to those in Marion and in Dartmouth. He said he realized he will also have to explain the proposal to the Matta-poisett School Committee for its approval.

He said that Marion's project cost about $30,000 and Dartmouth's $12,000. He said there would have to be a fund-raising project involving the public.

Selectman Huntoon commented, "I don't see any problem with the idea; sounds good to me." Chairman DeCosta told Grondski "you could also consider the town bathing beach playground which needs work. You would have to contact the Recreation Committee if you feel that's the way to go." Selectman Suzan recommended speaking to whomever was in charge of Marion's project to see how it is working and if they have any problems.

VOTED TO ACCEPT the proposal of Pierce Manufacturing, Inc. and Blanchard Fire Apparatus, Inc., dated April 30, 1986, to furnish the town with a Class A triple combination 1250 GPM pumping engine under a lease agreement with an option to purchase the truck. The fire truck is to be manufactured and supplied in accordance with the town's specifications, and acceptance is subject to the conditions precedent that the parties enter into a written lease agreement in a form satisfactory to Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming and subject to the annual appropriations to pay the annual rental, not to exceed $38,000 per annum. It was noted this was the only bid received.

ACCEPTED WITH REGRET the resignation of Roy Andrews as a member of the Personnel Board effective May 16, 1986.

Andrews noted in his letter that after 10 years of service to the town he feels the time has come to step down and allow another interested person to serve in his place. "I wish to thank the members of the Personnel Board that I have worked with over the years for a good working relationship and perhaps at another time I will again find the necessary time to serve Mattapoisett on another Board or Committee."

Selectmen announced they will welcome applications from any resident interested in serving on the Personnel Board, and to contact their office. A letter of appreciation will be sent to Andrews thanking him for his years of service. It was noted that he had an excellent record of attendance at meetings.

ANNOUNCED THE OPENING of Shining Tides to the taking of quahogs, effective June 1, at the recommendation of Shellfish Constable Brian Nunes. Nunes reported the oyster relay is completed and that 397 bushels have been transplanted from Eel Pond to Pine Island Pond.

HEARD A REPORT from Chairman DeCosta on the hazardous curve at the entrance to Industrial Drive. He said Roland Hebert, engineer with Southeastern Regional Planning and Economic District, personally checked the area and recommended a basic layout be prepared by a private engineer at an approximate cost of $2,500. and submit the plan to the state. Hebert said perhaps state Chapter 90 funds could be used for the labor. He noted additional land would have to be utilized and, where some of the land is state-owned, arrangements would have to be made with the state for its use.

Selectman Suzan added that at 8:00 in the morning the traffic on that road is heavy. He offered the suggestion that businessmen NOTED Chairman DeCosta will attend the graduation exercises at Old Rochester Regional High School on June 7th.

DID NOT RECOMMEND the use of Ned's Point Park for a graduation party for approximately 130 students from Medway High School. The request is conditioned with the rental of two portable toilet units to be placed adjacent to the beach at Ned's Point. A previous request asked for the park's use; however, the students were told the park could not be used by so many from out-of-town without any facilities.

This second request asked for the party to be held at the home of Frederick Rioles, Pico Beach Road, with the rental of the portable units next to the park's beach. Selectmen have no control over a party on private property, but placed on the private property and not on the park property. The police department will be informed of the request and to check into the activities.

Attention ORRHS Alumni

THE BRISTOL PROJECT NEEDS YOU!

This being the 25th anniversary of the ORR School District, a group of alumni have formed the ORRHS Alumni Association. The first undertaking of the Association is The Bristol Project.

The purpose of The Bristol Project is to raise funds to purchase new equipment for the Gilbert D. Bristol Auditorium - equipment that has not been modernized since originally purchased 25 years ago. Such items as stage curtains, a lighting board, a sound system and a follow spotlight are at the top of the priority list for replacement. The auditorium is perhaps the greatest public forum space within the facility, and the Association feels it warrants immediate attention.

As the alumni have never been approached as a group to participate in school functions other than reunions, the Alumni Association intends to involve past graduates with The

Building Vandalized

The Oceanology building of the Marion Natural History Museum, which Marion Selectman Lagreze ordered moved three months ago from its location at Island Wharf to the dump area, was vandalized this past week. Fortunately, a board member had removed tanks, filters, pumps, shells, fossils and Indian and whaling artifacts from the building when it was discovered at the dump two months ago.

Citizens are asked to be on the lookout for two three feet by twenty feet seining nets, a six foot dip net, a three foot dip net and assorted plastic buckets which were stolen by the vandals.

The Oceanology program of the Museum concluded when the water of the harbor was too cold to wade in last fall but will resume as soon as the water is warm again this season. The stolen items will be replaced but it will take money which could have been better spent on any other project of the Museum.

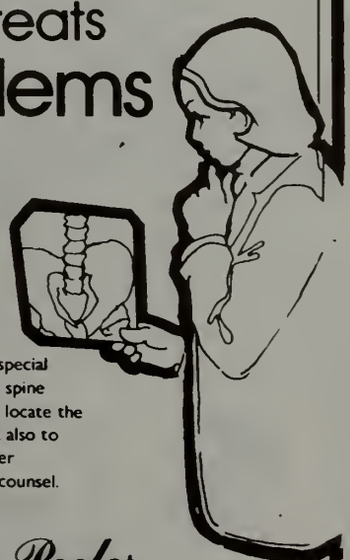
Here's how
Chiropractic treats
Back Problems



Persistent or recurring aches in the lower back and limbs may suggest a possible lower spinal or pelvic problem. This often requires a structural correction of the cause in order to relieve the condition. Although drugs may hide the pain temporarily, the spine and sacroiliac must be aligned to their proper position for normal function.

The doctor of chiropractic has made a special study of conditions related to the sacroiliac, spine and nervous system. She seeks to not only locate the problem and give relief from symptoms, but also to correct the fundamental cause as well as offer preventive, rehabilitation, and maintenance counsel.

School has won third place in the Plymouth/ AAA Trouble Shooting Contest. Roland Poitras from Mattapoisett and Greg Mirabito from Carver competed against approximately 130 students from 32 vocational high schools in Massachusetts and came away with the third place trophy.

The initial phase of the competition was a written examination, held on March 25th at Keefe Technical High School in Framingham. The ten top scoring schools qualified for the "hands-on" contest on May 13th. Old Colony was sixth.

Prior to the "hands-on" contest, schools were informed that the test vehicle would be a 1986 Plymouth with a 2.2 or 2.5 liter, non-turbo engine. Through the generosity of Mid-City Dodge/Chrysler/Plymouth in Dartmouth, a 1986 Plymouth was loaned to Old Colony for two days of "familiarization", as allowed by the contest rules.

In the actual test, each team was assigned a vehicle that had been "bugged" by the contest officials. The object of the competition was to find the bugs and correct them. The team that correctly diagnosed and repaired the problems and was judged to have the highest quality vehicle in the shortest time was declared the winner.

Poitras and Mirabito (both seniors at Old Colony) were awarded trophies for their third place finish. They also got a taste of the working environment and pressures facing today's automotive technicians.

This is the first year Old Colony has weather of the past month.

Gert Briggs of Westport, inveterate birder who only recently returned from a birding trip to the Great Lakes, will lead the local group on Saturday, May 31st, starting at 7:30 a.m. from the Post Office Corner at Central Village. Non-member area birders are cordially invited to join the caravan to nearby shore-points for late and/or nesting birds.

The most successful birdwalk of the past weeks was in the area of Watuppa Reservoir, where 50 species were observed. These included eight different warblers plus prized rarities such as Cooper's and broad-winged hawks. Results of the eagerly-awaited and official Audubon May Census, May 17th, proved disappointing to the dedicated participants who endured the miserable, fog-bound exploration of Turtle Rock Farm, Westport, to log but 36 species. The highlight of the morning was the sighting of a large flock of kingbirds - normally non-colonial - feeding in a meadow beside the upper reaches of the east branch of the Westport River. Though making a late appearance this year, kingbirds have been spotted frequently by many observers.

Other remarkable species to delight individual birders in the South Dartmouth area recently have been a single bluebird (a rarity in recent times), a parula warbler, a prothonotary, a white-eyed vireo, blue-winged warbler, ruby-throated hummingbird, and sharp-tailed sparrows.

Flocks of black-bellied plover have recently dotted the marshes and mudflats along with lesser and greater yellowlegs and least sandpipers. Green-backed herons and black-crowned night herons have returned to nest locally, while scores of Canada geese are already venturing out into shallow waters accompanying their month-old fledglings.

In the woodlands the melodious calls of wood thrushes, ovenbirds, scarlet tanagers, grey catbirds and great-crested flycatchers fill the air as courtship activity reaches a climax before the quiet of nesting sets in.

The season's final gathering of Paskamansetteers will take place on June 7th featuring the traditional 'breakfast bash' outdoors at Demarest Lloyd State Park starting at 7:30 a.m. A mid-morning scouting of the shoreline, the marshes and the adjacent woodlands will terminate scheduled activites of the club until late summer, when an excursion to Monomoy National Wildlife Refuge will be organized.

Get Cash 24 hours a day, 7 days a week at over 8,000 locations ...some more familiar than others

The only thing worse than being in a strange town is being in a strange town without any cash. Even credit cards don't help. They're just not practical when you need toothpaste, a roadside snack, taxi fare, some in-flight magazines, or a little extra cash for Junior when you drop him off at college.

That's why smart travelers carry the NBIS X-Press 24® CASH CARD. It can be used at more than 600 X-Press 24 locations in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, and at more than 8,000 CIRRUS® locations in 2,900 cities and towns throughout North America — even places like Bullhead City and Rancho Cucamonga.

Even better, you can use your NBIS X-Press 24 CASH CARD at thousands of not-so-strange places — busy airports, popular vacation resorts, major business districts, shopping malls, hotels and universities. Further, you'll have the convenience of a toll-free number you can call anytime to find out where you get the cash you need — fast.

It's as good as pocket money, and it's easy to get. Call or stop in at any of NBIS's 11 convenient locations, and we'll tell you how. We'll make sure you don't get stuck in Winnemucca — or anywhere else.

tional Safety Council are asking the public to make a special effort to wear their safety belts.

"Make It Click - Buckle Up" is a national campaign in which volunteers across the country and Chiefs of Police and Safety Officers will be asking people to buckle their safety belts and put their children in child safety seats.

According to National Safety Council statistics, each year an estimated 1.6 million motor vehicle occupants are injured and more than 44,000 are killed in motor vehicle collisions. In Massachusetts an average of 650 deaths and 50,000 injuries occur each year as a result of auto accidents.

Safety Officer Stanley Ennis says the National Campaign will focus on the "101 Critical Days" from Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day. During this period, more persons are injured and killed in motor vehicle crashes than at any other period of year, explains Officer Ennis.

Officer Ennis emphasizes that it is important to use your safety belt every time you are in a car. People think that safety belts are only important on long trips, but actually, "most accidents happen on short trips, close to home," he points out.

Police Chief James Moran and Officer Ennis point out that half of the people killed in 1985 would have been saved if they had been wearing safety belts or were protected by approved child safety seats.

In keeping with this National Campaign, the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen on Tuesday, May 20th, issued a Proclamation making the 101 critical days from May 24, 1986 through September 1, 1986 to be the "Make It Click Challenge" and commend those persons and organizations who are helping to educate Mattapoisett residents as to the importance of seat belts. A mandatory seat belt law was passed and is now in effect in Massachusetts.

ST. LUKE'S NURSE PUBLISHES
ARTICLE ON CANCER CARE

Leslie Gonsalves, R.N., B.S.N., a staff nurse in the Oncology Clinic at St. Luke's Hospital of New Bedford, has co-authored an article which has been published in the May/June 1986 issue of Oncology Nursing Forum. Entitled "Nursing Care and Management of Venous Access Ports", the article details nursing statistics and experiences in caring for 234 oncology (cancer) patients. Venous Access Ports are surgically implanted discs under the chest wall through which chemotherapy drugs are administered to treat cancer, especially tumors.

Mrs. Gonsalves collaborated with four nurses, Cheryl L. Moore, Karen A. Erikson, Linda B. Yates, and Martha Franklin, from the New England Deaconess Hospital in researching and writing the article.

New England Deaconess Hospital, which specializes in the treatment of cancer, utilizes the technique of implanting discs for chemotherapy treatments. This procedure is now used extensively at St. Luke's Hospital. The New England Deaconess Hospital has been affiliated with St. Luke's for over seven years. This relationship enables St. Luke's to offer the latest treatments in cancer care at the Oncology Clinic.

Mrs. Gonsalves, whose interest in oncology has led her to specialize in the field of cancer care, has attended numerous lec-

An open letter to anyone who owns a camera.....ANY camera:

Have you ever wondered why your last roll of film looked kinda funny while the previous roll had beautiful colors? We think you should know just WHAT controls color. It's not the camera, it's the PROCESSOR. That's right! What happens to your film after you take it out of the camera is every bit as important as what you did while you were shooting. If the reds aren't red and the whites aren't white, don't blame yourself. If the exposure was correct and the colors are bad, the ONLY cause is PROCESSING. We're very proud to announce that we have purchased and installed the finest mini-lab money can buy and we are turning out incredibly beautiful color pictures for our customers. 110, disc, 35mm, 126, you name it. If you'd like to see what REAL color prints should look like, let us do your next roll. You'll find that we charge just about the same as the drugstores do, but you'll see a world of difference in the results.....and THAT'S a promise. (P. S. You'll get the back the same day too.....and no extra charge) You're a better photographer than you think you are. Let us prove it.

Although the council has produced various guides for the Americana Trail over the years, this is the first time it has incorporated a usable road map. According to Mrs. Mary Morss, Executive Director of the BCDC, the map idea came from survey results last year that show maps were the foremost item wanted by tourists.

The map/guide, endorsed by all three governors, represents "a significant breakthrough in tourism promotion" says Mrs. Morss because it crosses state lines to package the tri-state coastal area as a single tourist destination -- exactly the way the tourist views the area.

"We have to realize that the tourist does not brake his car to a shrieking halt at the county or even the state line," Mrs. Morss adds. "The sooner we realize that a regional approach to tourism is the way of the future, the sooner we will become competitive in a very competitive industry."

The map/guides are free and will be distributed at all four of the BCDC information centers this summer: at the BCDC office, New Bedford Waterfront Historic Area; Fall River Heritage State Park Visitors Center; I-195 Eastbound in Swansea and at the Massachusetts Tourist Information Center, I-95 northbound in Mansfield; or call the BCDC, 997-1250, or Operator 6 -1-800-242-1510 in Massachusetts; outside Massachusetts, Operator 6 1-800-242-1520.

is to surpass its 1985 revenue of 1.2 million.

The Channel 2 Auction involves more than 4,000 volunteers and 5,000 donors throughout 200 communities in New England. The money raised helps WGBH in its production of such shows as Masterpiece Theatre, NOVA, and Victory Garden.

Auction Manager Edythe C. Baker, a volunteer entering her sixth year in this key position, says, "the Channel 2 Auction has something for everyone; donors receive on-air exposure before a buying audience of nearly 2 million viewers; bidders have an opportunity to buy from a broad range of merchandise; and volunteers have the chance to participate in an exciting project while also contributing to the quality programming on WGBH."

This year's Auction includes: the TWO COLLECTION, a juried collection of outstanding art, antiques and crafts, offered for high bid June 1, 6:30 p.m. to 12:30; the Sunday Matinee (June 1, 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.) with area teens working in studio positions; the Fine Wine Show (June 1, 5:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.); the Spirit of Massachusetts Day (Thursday, June 6); nightly Showcases focusing on special categories; autographed celebrity items; and community salutes.

For the second consecutive year, the Auction will present a NEW CAR AUCTION, airing June 2 - June 7 (7:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.). Eleven new vehicles, with a total value of $131,000, have been donated by regional automotive dealer associations. Bids will be accepted throughout the week on the cars which include two and four door coupes, a convertible, a luxury sports sedan, and a truck. All cars will be sold to the highest bidder on the final night of Auction, Saturday, June 7th.

During last year's Auction Mayor of Boston Ray Flynn was the first of more than 500 guest auctioneers who presented donations ranging from Celtics season tickets which sold for $6,030 to Marvin Hagler boxing gloves which sold for $750. Arts and Antiques, Travel Packages and Fine and Rare Wine proved to be among the Auction's best selling categories.

This year's travel offerings include: a vacation to Palm Springs, California; a cruise to Alaska; a flight to Singapore; several vacations to Jamaica; and a Walt Disney Family Package.

Other items include: a cross-country ski package, an apron signed by Julia Child, a marquise cut diamond. Larry Bird's sneakers from last year's play-offs, a clambake for 25 people, an exercise stationary bike, braided rugs, a complete private pilot starter kit, a hand-painted child's rocking chair, and a t-shirt and script signed by the cast of "Cheers".

"Thanks to the support of our volunteers, underwriters and donors," says Auction Manager Edythe Baker, "the 21st Channel 2 Auction will be the biggest, most successful Auction ever. It will be a Whale of a Time. Join us!"

telecommunications services in the region is quickly using up available telephone numbers, requiring that a third area code be added in the state.

NET Vice President-Massachusetts John Coleman said Area Code 508 will serve the region bounded by Area Code 413 to the west and by a new boundary encircling Greater Boston.

Area Code 617 will continue to serve Greater Boston customers.

Coleman stressed that the new code will not affect toll rates. "A call that's not a toll call today will not be a toll call after the new code is implemented -- even if a customer dials '1' plus the area code and telephone number to call across the new boundary."

Customers requiring additional information on the new Massachusetts area code can call NET'S Residence Response Center at 1-800-555-5000.

This area will be included in the new 508 area code.

FIVE CLASS SCHEDULES THIS SUMMER AT BCC

A choice of five class schedules at Bristol Community College this summer gives prospective students flexibility in fitting education into their summer plans.

"Sometimes students have to put off taking a course because the summer class schedule runs through the time when they plan to go on vacation," said Janice Motta, dean of continuing education. "We offer five different starting times for credit classes so students can fit in a course or two and still keep all their other summer plans."

The different options include:

Morning Option I, meeting Monday through Thursday from June 9 to July 10.

Morning Option II, meeting Monday through Thursday from July 14 to August 14.

Evening Option I, meeting once a week from May 29 through August 28.

Evening Option II, meeting twice a week from June 16 through August 12.

Saturday Option, meeting May 31 through August 23.

Credit classes offered this summer can give students a head start on the fall, said Ms.

SUMMER PROGRAM IN COASTAL STUDIES

The Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies will offer the 1986 Summer Program in Coastal Studies during the months of July and August. This program, now in its fifth season, is a month-long learning experience for students entering grades 7, 8, 9, and 10-12. Each of these four sessions emphasizes both field study and recreation and focuses on a particular aspect of coastal ecology. In addition to much work in the field, laboratory work and analysis of data are incorporated into the program allowing the students to draw conclusions about the ecosystem being studied. The seventh grade and high school sessions are offered in July. The eighth and ninth grade sessions are offered during August.

In each of the grade levels the primary goal of the Summer Program is to increase the participants' understanding of the dynamics of coastal ecosystems and human interdependence with them. Through this increased understanding students will gain a greater awareness of threats posed to our coastal resources. A secondary and complementary goal is to teach swimming, canoeing and camping skills.

The seventh grade program, Coastal Ecology, includes an in-depth study of the estuary, saltmarsh, beach and rocky coastline, emphasizing environmental awareness and skill development. The seventh grade instructor is Len Euart, a teacher at the DeMello School in South Dartmouth and a veteran Summer Program Instructor.

In the eighth grade program, Marine Biology students take a closer look at these ecosystems and study the anatomy, physiology and ecology of coastal and estuarine plants and animals. Tom Light, Biology Instructor at Friends Academy in North Dartmouth, will teach this program for a second time this summer.

Ninth graders study the physical properties of oceans and surrounding areas in the ninth grade program, Forces That Shape the Coast. The properties of waves, tides, and currents are studied through a series of student-designed experiments. Bill Chamberlin, the Lloyd Center's Outreach Program Coordinator, will teach this program.

The program for grades 10-12, Coastal Photography and Water Chemistry, involves students in an investigation of the Chemical Properties of water, including an intensive water quality analysis of the Slocum River in Dartmouth (located adjacent to the Lloyd Center). In addition, the students learn the art of photography, including use of the darkroom. The goal is to combine the two media - chemical analysis of the river and ocean, and photography - to document changes in the Slocum River. Richard Audet, Biology Instructor at Dartmouth High School and Summer Program Instructor since 1982, will teach this grade level.

Each session of the Summer Program is four weeks long, five days a week, from 8:30 to 3:00. During the month a two or three day
